Walker Graduated Number One in SPC's Accelerated Degree Program

Dr. Raymond Holmes, Provost and Vice President of Academic Affairs, (left) awarded Mrs. Becky Walker the Performance Award for maintaining above a 3.0 GPA at the Baccalaureate Exercise. Mrs. Singleton (right) was on hand to congratulate her.

Lawrenceville, VA: June 30, 2009 – With perseverance and determination as the ingredients in her success, Mrs. Becky Walker graduated number one in the 2009 Saint Paul's College Accelerated Degree Program Class.

“Mrs. Walker was a model student who received all A's in her coursework throughout her entire academic career,” stated Ms. Joanne Singleton, Director of the Extended and Continuing Education Studies Program when asked about Mrs. Walker's work ethic. “The skills she has acquired will help her and the organizations to achieve its goals and objectives.”

Currently, Mrs. Walker is employed as the Library and Systems Technology Manager for the Meherrin Regional Library System. She has already received a promotion since earning her degree.

Last May, she was inducted into the Alpha Sigma Lambda (ASL) Honor Society. Created in 1946 by Dr. Rollin B. Dosey, Dean of University College at Northwestern University, ASL acknowledges the academic excellence of adult student learners in higher education.

Mrs. Walker is a resident of Lawrenceville. She is married to Andy Walker and has two sons, Travis and Kevin. Prior to being admitted into Saint Paul's, Mrs. Walker attended Southside Virginia Community College where she earned her Associates Degree.
